

JOIN US FOR AN IMPORTANT RESEARCH TALK ON:

MATHEMATICAL VIDEOS & THE CHANGING CLASSROOM

Talk given by Dr. Marcelo C. Borba

MARCH 24, 2020
12P.M. - 1:30P.M.
11 SIMCOE ST. N.
OSHAWA, ON
RM. 415
(STEAM3D LAB)

Can't make it in person?
Attend online through Google Meet! Scan the QR code above for the link!

This research explores how the creation of multimodal videos with mathematical content may contribute to the process of rendering the classroom borderless, as well as how multimodal videos can become teaching & learning tools. In this talk, Dr. Borba will discuss how students in Brazil are producing mathematical videos and how that has pedagogically changed the teaching and learning, and modified assessment practices and the use of textbooks.